

25.1 (1) The Speaker may direct any matter which in his or her opinion is of confidential nature to be excluded from the Journals of the House and from the verbatim report of proceedings of the House, and to be the subject of a separate verbatim report, which shall be kept in the custody of the Clerk and made available only to Members and Clerks.

(2) Any Member with the support of at least two other Members may apply for exclusion from the Journals of any matter which in his or her opinion is of a confidential nature and which he or she considers as having escaped the attention of the Speaker.