

37. The House may on any motion made by any Member order or impose a limit to the motion or the contribution made by Members on that particular motion by allotting a limited period of time for that motion or for the contributions made by Members on the motion or by imposing the time limitation to both the motion and contributions by Members.