

59 If a Member rises in his place before the Speaker has announce the results of the votes, and states that he had voted in error, or that his vote has been wrongly counted and the Speaker is satisfied that the error is a genuine one and not a mere change of mind, he shall order the error to be corrected before declaring the results of the vote.